One lovely town to spend Día de los Muertos is Tepoztlán in the state of Morelos. This Pueblo Mágico is a wonderful place to see the festivities. The village comes alive with the aromas of pan de muerto and burning copal, as people are dressed in traditional gear while they traverse their main street, the Avenida Tepozteco. This is the road that heads up the mountain to the small Aztec pyramid which overlooks this lovely town.

7:00 pm Merienda: Hot Chocolate and special Day of the Dead Bread

Day 8 Friday November 3th, 2023

Return to Mexico City from Cuernavaca private driver will take you directly to the airport (included)

¡Hasta La Vista!
